

SPC 企画セッション 2-C5-1 English

Evidence-based Physical Examination: A practical way to apply evidence to have more confidence in our clinical skills

湘南鎌倉総合病院 ジョエル・ブランチ

Joel Branch, Shonan Kamakura General Hospital

対象者 医師・後期研修医（卒後3年目以上）・初期研修医（卒後1-2年目）・学生・その他

Target Doctor・Senior resident (3+years after graduation)・Resident (1-2 years after graduation)・Medical student・Other

Key words : Medical English, Physical Examination Demonstration, Evidence Based Physical Diagnosis

Session Summary

Objectives :

Participants will be able

- 1) Understand the importance of the respiratory examination techniques
- 2) To understand likelihood ratios and how they increase your pretest probability for diagnosis
- 3) To understand various likelihood ratios for the physical examination techniques of the respiratory examination
- 4) To see and practice physical examination techniques
- 5) Develop increased confidence in the physical examination and have less reliance on advanced diagnostic techniques

Target audience: Anyone who is interested in learning Evidence Based Physical Diagnosis utilizing English.

NOTE: participants should bring stethoscopes to the session

Timetable – 90-minute session

0-5 minutes (5 minutes)

- Introduction to members of the session

5-85 minutes (80 minutes)

- Hybrid Case Example with Live Demonstration and Practice of How to Perform the Respiratory Physical Examination.
- Application of Evidence Based Medicine to the Physical Examination Techniques to Consider the Diagnosis in the presented Case.

85-90 minutes (5 minutes)

- Close of session

Pre-/Posttest Questionnaire
Download at QR code above